Position Title Web Developer - Mid

1153C Web Developer - Mid
Experience: Six years of experience in Systems Engineering, Programming, or as a Web Developer.
Duties: Provides technical expertise in the development and application of methods, theories, and research techniques in the investigation and solution of software applications. Conducts detailed analyses of defined application specifications and designs complex programs. Plans, conducts, technically directs, and/or evaluates projects, possibly managing the efforts of other engineers or technical support staff in their performance. Prepares associated documentation, block diagrams, and logic flowcharts. Prepares sample test data, conducts program tests, and analyzes test results; recommends corrections for debugging program errors. Modifies existing programs as required by changing systems requirements or equipment configurations. Confers with systems personnel to clarify program intent, output requirements, and input data acquisition. Evaluates vendor capabilities to provide required products or services. Designs, develops, and analyzes software programs. Designs and develops web sites based on approved customer objectives. Proposes website strategies and creates action plans and applications to carry out strategies and accomplish objectives. Customizes web-based interactive features, builds database gateways and implements electronic commerce services.

Location: WFL Vancouver - Remote   State: Washington

Note: Candidate must be a U.S. citizen or green card holder who has resided in the U.S. for at least 3 years and has the ability to obtain a public trust

==

Job Summary : Develops and maintains websites and web applications using a combination of web technologies, including HTML, CSS, JavaScript, and PHP. Provides content administration on multiple Content Management System platforms, including Drupal and SharePoint, by publishing, updating, and removing content as needed. Creates graphic media using Adobe Creative Cloud applications. Develops and maintains Acrobat forms using Adobe Experience Manager Forms Designer. Trains content editors and subject matter experts to act as contributors and publishers on supported CMS platforms. Directly engages with customers to scope and document their requirements for web projects or content publications and provides them with clear, professional communication, whether written or verbal. Writes technical documentation for supported systems.

Position: FT/PT   FT   Travel Required ?

Qualifications, Skills, Experience or Certifications:
 1. Six years of experience in Systems Engineering, Programming, or as a Web Developer

Job Role Specific Requirements:
 Core responsibilities and duties; highlight day-to-day activities:
 1.   Develop and maintain websites using HTML, CSS, JavaScript, PHP, and SQL
 2.   Apply thorough knowledge of varying browsers, platforms, and devices to create durable and responsive front-end code
 3.   Collaborate with a development team on extending a suite of rapid application development tools that rely on PHP, SQL, JavaScript (with extensive AJAX/XHR), CSS, and HTML
 4.   Provide content administration on all agency platforms (Drupal, SharePoint, and non-CMS intranet) by publishing, updating, and removing content as needed
 5.   Create graphic media such as web templates, imagery, and logos using Adobe Creative Cloud applications (especially Photoshop and Illustrator)
 6.   Develop and maintain Acrobat forms using Adobe Experience Manager Forms Designer
 7.   Train content editors to be self-sufficient contributors and publishers on the Drupal and SharePoint platforms
 8.   Write technical documentation for supported systems
 9.   Contribute strategic input to long-term solution stack and infrastructure decisions